

RescuED Activity 4: Let's face the issues

Following "Activity 3 - Sequencing the cards" provide each pair with a debate topic. Ask students to prepare arguments for and against the statement and write them into their books. Select students to present their arguments to the class.

Debate topics

Gaining a licence is a ticket to freedom and independence.

It is a driver's attitude that causes accidents, not their ability to handle a vehicle.

The only way to get driving experience is to experiment and try things out with a car.

It should be compulsory for all drivers to complete an advanced driver training course.

Young drivers are more influenced by distractions than older, more experienced drivers.

The age of learner drivers should be dropped to allow for more time to gain driving experience.

Having a new licence and being with friends is not always a deadly mix.

Getting a licence is not a great idea.

A licence is not worth the costs.
